Arts and Culture Commission

Regarding the art of public expression:

Galleries, museums, theaters, all house references to fine art, but art that lives and moves in sympathy with its culture is now, the origin of reminisce.

Please continue to promote our appreciation of living culture to a fine art. Ask the city to allow free public performances in our parks and public spaces. Let us meet these creative visionaries in their element.

Ask the city to set aside some space at their parklets on Main Street to be used for artists.

Incorporate the schools and colleges and the entire community in outreach efforts.

The more we focus on the art of appreciation the more we respect everything, the better everything is.

Thank you all for helping find the way.

Sincerely,

Trevor Gotsman
