

Residential Burglary with Arrest

ShareRSS

01/04/2014

Incident: Residential Burglary with Arrest

Contact: Watch Commander, 805-339-4416

Location: 200 block S. Evergreen Dr.

Date/Time Occurred: 01-04-14 / 0843

Officer(s) Involved: Patrol

Suspect(s): Dominic Celestina 23 yrs (Ventura Resident)

Report #: 14-00658

Narrative:

On January 4th 2014 at about 0843 hours the Ventura Police Command Center received a 911-call reference a prowler seen in the backyard of a neighbor's residence.

Officers arrived on scene within minutes locating Dominic Celestina in the backyard of the Victim's residence. Officers detained the Celestina who was carrying property that appeared to be from inside the Victim's house.

The eyewitness on scene identified Celestina as the suspect seen entering the Victim's backyard. Officers conducted a thorough investigation and determined Celestina entered the residence via an unlocked window to the rear of the home. During the investigation the Victim returned home and identified the stolen property in Celestina's possession as his from inside his residence.

Dominic Celestina was taken into custody and booked into the Ventura County Jail for 459 PC- Residential Burglary, 11364 H&S- Possession of Drug Paraphernalia and 2 local arrest warrants. No one was injured during this incident and the investigation into this incident is ongoing. Anyone with information related to this incident is urged to call the Ventura Police Department at 339-4441