VENTURA POLICE DEPARTMENT

Incident: Carjacking and attempt robbery

Location: Foothill Rd / Bayview Ave

Date/Time Occurred: 110316 / 2131 hours

Officer(s) Involved: VPD Patrol Officers

Victim(s): Name withheld

Suspect(s): 1) Hispanic male, 20-25 yrs old
2) Hispanic male, 25-30 yrs old
3) Hispanic female, 30-35 yrs old

Report #: 16-15326

Narrative:

On the above date and time, the VPD Communications Center received a call from a male victim who said he was attacked by two males and his car had been stolen. Officers arrived on scene and learned that the victim had stopped on Foothill Rd to assist a female stranded on the road in a dark colored SUV. As he attempted to help her, two male suspects attacked the victim and demanded money from him. The victim ran away from the area to avoid further harm. When the victim returned to the area, his red Kia sedan was gone. The suspects and the dark colored SUV were also gone. The victim suffered minor injuries.

On 110416 at about 0020 hours, a Santa Barbara County Sheriff's deputy located the victim's unoccupied stolen car in Carpinteria. The stolen vehicle was recovered, however the suspects are still outstanding. Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Ventura Police Department Detectives at (805) 339-4488.
