Register now for fall Recreation & Arts classes in the city of Ventura

Register anytime for more than 250 recreation and arts classes and tours, which begin in late September using our online catalog at www.cityofventura.net/recreation. Or visit our offices at Ventura City Hall, 501 Poli Street, Room 226 or call 805.658.4726, M-F 8-5 (closed alternate Fridays).

Classes of interest for all abilities and ages include swimming, sailing, kayaking and paddleboard lessons, youth and adult sports and fitness, tennis, golf, BMX, specialty topics such as yoga, martial arts, cooking and canines as well as photography, filmmaking, game design, visual arts, dance, music, language, theater and programs for adults of all ages at the Ventura Adult Center. Discover Ventura through our travel programs: walking and ghost tours, and regional trips on our new thirty-passenger bus, nature excursions and events at our historic sites.

Find about free events and important city services through a September to January calendar including Volunteer Ventura, Cornucopia community garden, Ventura Water's free gardening classes, police and environmental programs, City Hall and Olivas Adobe rentals, photo and writing contests, libraries and VYBA.

To register, for more information or to have a catalog mailed to you call the City of Ventura's Parks, Recreation & Community Partnerships Department, 805-658-4726.

This release is available on the City of Ventura website at www.cityofventura.net. ###
