

Public invited to free “Senior Forum & BBQ” at Aegis Living on July 22

Share

RSS

07/17/2014

For Immediate Release

July 17, 2014

Contact: Hans Hormann, 805.648-3035

Cary Glenn, 658-4732

Richard Newsham, 658-4706

Public invited to free “Senior Forum & BBQ” at Aegis Living on July 22

Older adults and their caregivers are invited to a “Senior Forum & BBQ Lunch” on Tuesday, July 22 at 10:30 am at Aegis Living, 4964 Telegraph Rd in Ventura. To RSVP for this free event sponsored by the Ventura Council on Aging and Aegis Living of Ventura contact 805.650.1114.

A panel of speakers will present information about new programs and resources for older adults and their caregivers in Ventura including:

Victoria Jump, Director of the Area Agency on Aging, New programs for FY2014-2015

Tressa Thompson, DMV Senior Ombudsmen Program representative, “Driver Safety for Older Adults: What Families Need to Know”

Phil Chandler, President of Right at Home of Ventura County, “Road Map to Continuum Care”

Mary Wilson, Extended Learning Academy, “New art, health and caregiver classes and opportunities”

Bo Baikousher/Sally Biby of Dignity Memorial network on “Funeral, cremation & cemetery needs”

Hans Hormann, new coordinator for the recently renovated Ventura Avenue Adult Center, 550 North Ventura Avenue, will provide information about its exciting new and returning programs for adults this fall.

For more information contact Hans Hormann, 805.648.3035 and to RSVP for the Senior Forum/BBQ contact 805.650.1114.

This release is available on the City of Ventura website www.cityofventura.net. -###-