Free training offered for event organizers in Ventura, Special Event Permit & Responsible Beverage Serving Class, March 25

On Tuesday, March 25 at 6pm, the City of Ventura will host a free hour-long class on the Special Event permit process at Ventura City Hall, 501 Poli Street, in the Community Meeting Room. Additionally, Project Safer will host a Responsible Beverage Serving Class, which is mandatory training when alcohol is served or sold at a special event (including both public and private property.)

Class size is limited to the first 50 people and pre-registration is required by March 20, 2014. To register, contact Michelle Godoy-Morales at 805.654.7749 (8am-5pm) or email mgodoy@cityofventura.net.

The Special Event class will assist event organizers, new and seasoned, on City of Ventura requirements for the special event application process. Representatives from the Special Event Permit Office, Police Services and Fire Inspection will be present to answer questions.
