Ventura Mayor Cheryl Heitmann invites residents to provide input and suggestions on city issues at “Coffee with the Mayor” Saturday, April 11

Residents of Ventura are invited to meet with Mayor Cheryl Heitmann to provide their input and suggestions on city issues, Saturday, April 11 from 10am – 11am at the Downtown Ventura Certified Farmers’ Market located at the corner of Santa Clara and Palm Streets.

The hour-long event does not require an RSVP.

“Coffee with the Mayor” is an informal come-and-go monthly gathering for residents to express their concerns, ask questions of the Mayor and provide ideas at a location in their neighborhood. The location of the event changes so they are accessible to all residents.

“Every voice counts,” said Mayor Heitmann. “These meetings are part of a continuing effort to reach out and listen to residents’ concerns and suggestions. Working together is an important part of improving our community.”

The Ventura City Council advocates for transparency in government. Residents can also access City Council agendas and administrative reports by visiting www.cityofventura.net/publicmeetings.

All City Council meetings are open to the public, and are held in the Council Chambers at City Hall, 501 Poli Street. Council meetings are televised live on CAPS Channel 15 in Ventura, and are streamed live over the Internet at www.cityofventura.net/video. ---##--
