Public Invited to Ventura's State of the City Address, February 13

Ventura Mayor Erik Nasarenko will present the annual State of the City address in Council Chambers at City Hall, 501 Poli Street, on Monday, February 13, 2017, at 6 pm. A brief reception will be held after the address, followed by the regularly scheduled City Council meeting.

This year's State of the City theme "Ventura: Growing stronger while keeping its charm" will focus on the implementation of Measure O, infrastructure investment, and public safety. Mayor Nasarenko will also highlight the City's efforts to address our water supply needs and respond to the challenges of homelessness.

The public is welcome to join fellow residents, business partners and other City supporters at this annual event. The State of the City address will be broadcast via live stream on CapsMedia.org, and rebroadcast thereafter. It can also be accessed online by visiting the City's website at www.cityofventura.net and clicking "News and Events" selecting "Videos."
