Incident: Warrant Arrest

Location: Dakota Track Ventura

Date/Time Occurred: 02-26-20 @ 1302

Officer(s) Involved: Ventura Police Patrol Officers, Ventura Police K9 Officer and partner Miles, Ventura Police, and Ventura County Sheriff's PROS officers, Ventura County Sheriff's Air Unit and Ventura County Probation

Suspect(s): Steven Bohannan 4-16-80

Report #: 20-13993

Narrative:

On the above date and time, officers attempted to conduct a probation search on a Post Release Offender (PROS) in the 200 block of Delaware Dr. As the officers knocked on the front door, Steven Bohannan ran out of the rear of the house and started to jump over fences running from one yard to another. Bohannan does not live at the address and was not the subject of the search; however, the officers recognized him as being a wanted subject.

Officers quickly set up a perimeter and asked for additional resources to assist in searching for Bohannan. A short time later, a Ventura County Sheriff's Department helicopter arrived as well as Ventura Police K9 officer and his partner Miles. After an extensive search, officers were able to narrow Bohannan's location to an address in the 2900 block of Omaha Av. During the search of the residence, K9 Miles detected Bohannan hiding in a refrigerator in the garage and alerted officers. Bohannan was removed from the refrigerator and arrested for his warrants, delaying a peace officer, trespass, and possession of a controlled substance.

No one was injured during the incident. A review of Ventura County Superior Court records shows that Bohannan has been arrested in the past for burglary, possession of a concealed firearm and DUI.
