Incident: Assault with a Deadly Weapon and Residential Burglary Arrest

Location: 200 Block of Kellogg St.

Date/Time Occurred: 4/16/22 at 0503hrs

Officer(s) Involved: VPD Patrol

Suspect(s): Sylvia Perez, 59 yrs., Vagrant

Report #: 22-24151

Narrative:

On 4/16/22 at 0503hrs, the Ventura Police Command Center received a 911 call from a victim in the 200 block of Kellogg St. The victim stated a person had broken the front window of her house and was now standing in her dining room swinging around a large shard of glass. The victim and her three sons (ages 26, 19 and 15) live at the residence.

Upon arrival, officers located the suspect (Sylvia Perez) in the living room of the residence. They took her into custody without incident. Officers learned that just prior to their arrival, the suspect began swinging the shard of glass towards the victim. The victim's 15-year-old son armed himself with a wooden sword and hit the large piece of glass and the suspect's arm, causing the suspect to stop aggressing towards the victim.

Neither the victim nor her sons were injured. The suspect was transported to a local hospital and treated for injuries she received breaking into the residence and during her attack. She was then transported to Ventura County Jail and booked for felony assault with a deadly weapon and felony residential burglary, along with multiple warrants she had reference aggravated trespass, and illegal lodging.
