"We've established new partnerships to expand the programs and services available this Spring," announced Acting Parks & Recreation Director Emily Fox. "Whether it's college prep courses, therapeutic aquatics classes at the Ventura Family YMCA, or Line Dancing at the Ventura Townhouse, our aim is to offer diverse opportunities for Ventura residents at every stage of life."

In addition to the comprehensive list of Parks and Recreation activities, the Guide features City-wide news on pages 44 through 47, including information about upcoming construction projects, grant opportunities, and a message from our new City Manager Bill Ayub.

The City of Ventura Parks and Recreation Department maintains over 800 acres of park and open space, including golf courses, and oversees three community centers, three community gardens, and the Ventura Aquatic Center.
