Update:

After further investigation into suspect's identity it was later discovered that Gutierrez gave false information and his real name is Geovany Salinas, 22 years of age. An additional charge of false representation to a police officer was added to Salinas.

On the above date and time, a Ventura Police K-9 Officer was patrolling the downtown area when he observed a suspicious subject loitering and possibly attempting to burglarize a business in the 200 block of E. Santa Clara St. The officer detained the subject and began checking the area to see if he was committing a crime. Moments later, a second subject, later identified as Gutierrez, suddenly appeared from the same area of the business and fled on foot. The officer gave Gutierrez several commands, but he refused to stop running. The officer began chasing Gutierrez on foot and deployed his police K-9.

After a brief foot pursuit, and with the assistance of the police K-9, the officer caught and detained Gutierrez at the corner of Main St. and Palm St.

After being cleared at VCMC for injuries he sustained from the dog bite, Gutierrez was booked into the Ventura County Jail for resisting arrest. The initial subject that was detained by the officer fled from the scene and was not located.

The investigation is ongoing.
