Incident: Possession of a Loaded and Concealed Firearm in a Vehicle

Location: Telegraph Rd. and Ashwood Ave.

Date/Time Occurred: 8/09/15, 3:57pm

Officer(s) Involved: Ventura PD Patrol.

Suspect(s): Jennifer Sabat, 34 years, Oxnard Resident

Report #: 15-10659

Narrative:

On the above date and time, a patrol officer working patrol observed a vehicle driving in the area of Telegraph Rd. and Ashwood Ave., with no rear license plate, as required by law. The officer conducted a vehicle stop for the equipment violation and contacted the driver, later identified as Jennifer Sabat. There was also a male passenger in the vehicle.

The officer developed information to conduct a search of the vehicle and asked both Sabat and the male passenger to exit the vehicle. Sabat was acting suspicious when she removed her purse from inside the vehicle, which caused the officer to further question her about the potential of weapons. It was discovered Sabat had a loaded firearm concealed in her purse.

Sabat was taken into custody without incident. She was arrested and booked into the Ventura County Jail for being in possession of a loaded and concealed firearm in a vehicle. The male passenger was arrested and booked into the Ventura County Jail for violating his terms of a post release offender.
