Report #: 15-07239

Narrative:

On May 30, 2015 at 10:08 AM, the Ventura Police Command Center received a 911 call from a passerby who witnessed two males in a physical fight in the intersection of Ramon St. and Ventura Ave. Before officers arrived an additional 911 caller advised that a stab wound victim was in her driveway on Bell Way west of Ventura Ave. Officers located the victim who was suffering from one stab wound to the left side of his torso.

Ventura City Fire Department and AMR responded and treated the victim on scene. AMR then transported the victim to VCMC where he was admitted for treatment.

During the course of the investigation, officers learned that the victim got into a physical fight with the unknown suspect as they passed each other in the crosswalk of Ramon St. and Ventura Ave. The suspect stabbed the victim one time during the fight with an unknown sharp object. The suspect fled the scene prior to officer's arrival. After the victim was stab he ran to an associates house located on Bell Way.

The victims sustained serious, but non-life threatening wounds. Officers searched the area but were unable to locate the suspect. The investigation into this incident is ongoing. Anyone with information related to this incident is urged to call the Ventura Police Department at (805) 339-4309.
