Incident: Stolen Vehicle Recovery and Arrest

Contact: Watch Commander, 805.339.4416

Location: Peking St./Main St.

Date/Time Occurred: May 17, 2015 @ 11P45 AM

Officer(s) Involved: Ventura PD Patrol

Suspect(s): Cherish Rogers 28 years old / Ventura Resident

Report #: 15-06603

Narrative:

On May 17, 2015 at approximately 11:45 AM, a Ventura police officer picked up a homing signal from a stolen vehicle on the Lojack tracking computer installed in his patrol vehicle. The officer learned through Lojack that the vehicle was a Blue 1998 Honda Civic that had been stolen from the city of Oxnard.

Officers tracked the vehicle's signal to the area of Peking St. and Main St. in Ventura. As officers approached the vehicle, Rogers attempted to flee but was quickly taken into custody by responding officers.

During the investigation and interview, Rogers admitted to officers that she stole the vehicle from the city of Oxnard. Rogers was arrested and booked at the Ventura County Jail for outstanding warrants out of Santa Barbara County and possession of a stolen vehicle.

The stolen vehicle was undamaged and later returned to the registered owner. No one was injured as a result of this incident.

The investigation into this incident is ongoing. Anyone with information related to this incident is urged to call the Ventura Police Department at 339-4441.
