Report #: 15-5140

Narrative:

On April 15, 2015 at 6:36 PM, the Ventura Police Department's Command Center received a 911 call from a witness reporting a possible burglary in progress to a neighbor's residence in the 100 block of S. Santa Rosa St. The caller reported seeing a subject, later identified as Nhuom Le, loitering outside the residence before entering through an unlocked rear door.

Several officers responded to the call and set up a perimeter around the residence. When officers confirmed Le was still inside, officers began giving him announcements requesting that he exit the residence. Initially, Le was uncooperative and refused to come outside. After approximately 10 minutes, and additional announcements by officers, Le exited the residence and was taken into custody without further incident.

Officers learned during the investigation that prior to entering the victim's residence, Le was seen prowling around the yard and trying doors and windows of a neighboring residence.

Le was transported to the Ventura County Jail and booked for residential burglary.

The victim resident was not home at the time of the incident.
