Officer(s) Involved: Ventura Police Detectives, Patrol

Victim(s): Juvenile Female, Name Withheld

Suspect(s): Daniel Gil, 29, Ventura Resident

Report #: 14-06275

Narrative: In May of 2014, Ventura Police Officers received a report of a sexual assault. The victim, who was only 14, reported that she was sexually assaulted by a male who was several years older than her. The male brought her to his home where he provided her with alcohol and then sexually assaulted her after she became intoxicated.

Ventura Police Detectives began conducting an investigation and determined the suspect to be Daniel Gil, who was 28 at the time of the offense. In November of 2014, Ventura Police Detectives served a search warrant on Gil at his residence and obtained further evidence. Detectives determined that Gil met the victim on Facebook and used Facebook to lure the victim into meeting with him. Gil offered drugs and alcohol to the victim to entice her to spend time with him.

On 2-26-15, Gil was arrested at the Ventura Police Department. He was later booked at the Ventura County Jail for 288(c)(1)PC (lewd conduct with a minor), 288.3 PC (luring a minor), 286(2) PC (sodomy of a minor) and 261(a)(3) PC (rape, victim incapable of giving consent due to intoxication).

Based on the information recovered during the investigation, Ventura Police Detectives believe there may be several additional victims.

The investigation into this crime is ongoing. The Ventura Police Department is also seeking information on any additional reports of sexual misconduct by the suspect, Daniel Gil. Anyone with related information is urged to contact Det. Ruggiero of the Ventura Police Department at 339-4304.
