Report #: 15-1333

Narrative:

On the above date and time, the Ventura Police Command Center received a 911 call of a stabbing that just occurred inside the La Parrilla Mexican Restaurant, 100 N. Ashwood Ave. Callers reported seeing the suspect, later identified as Cameron Calabrese, fleeing the restaurant on foot. Officers from the nearby Ventura College Police Department were monitoring the radio call and responded to the area to assist. As they were driving to scene, they saw Calabrese, who matched the description of the suspect, running in the area of Baylor St. and Telegraph Rd. He was taken into custody after a brief foot pursuit.

During the investigation, officers learned that Calabrese and Rogers were inside of the restaurant, and for unknown reasons got into a verbal altercation. It appears Calabrese and Rogers knew each other prior to the altercation, but the relationship between them is not known. During the argument, Calabrese used a small knife and stabbed Rogers in the shoulder.

The victim was treated on scene by Ventura City Fire and AMR personnel, then transported to VCMC with non-life threatening injuries. After being identified by witnesses, Calabrese was arrested and later booked into Ventura County Jail for assault with a deadly weapon.

The investigation into this incident is ongoing. Anyone with information related to this incident is urged to call the Ventura Police Department at 339-4441.
