Report #: 14-16271

Narrative:

On the above date and time the victim was walking from her car to her residence in the 1100 Block of Cypress Point Lane when the above described suspect walked up behind her and demanded her property. This startled the victim, and when she turned to look at the suspect, he pointed a gun at her and again demanded the box that she was carrying. In fear for her safety, the victim complied with the suspect's orders. The suspect quickly took all the contents out of the box and began going through it. When the suspect was done, he hit the victim in the face with a closed fist and left the majority of her property behind. The suspect then fled on foot northbound on Cypress Point lane towards Telephone Rd.

After the robbery, the victim called 911 and officers searched the surrounding area for the suspect but did not find him. The victim sustained minor injuries that did not require medical attention. The investigation into this crime is ongoing. Anyone with information related to this incident is urged to call the Ventura Police Department at (805)339-4409.
