Incident: Attempt Kidnapping

Contact: Cpl. Sutherland 805 339-4467

Location: 100 Block of Dakota Dr

Date/Time Occurred: November 24, 2014, 5:00 p.m.

Officer(s) Involved: Ventura PD Patrol and Detectives

Victim(s): Withheld

Suspect(s): 2 Hispanic male adults

Report #: 14-14926

Narrative:

At the above date and time, the victim (7 yr old boy) and his cousin (10 yr old girl) were walking in the 100 block of Dakota Dr. They walked past a dark colored 4-door car occupied by two Hispanic male adults. The passenger of the car called to the victim then exited the car. The suspect approached the victim and grabbed the victim by the shirt. The suspect tried to pull the victim into the waiting car. The victim and friend were able to get away from the suspect and run for help. When police officers arrived in the area, the suspects and vehicle were gone.

The victim described the suspect as a Hispanic male adult with a mustache wearing dark clothing. The driver of the suspect vehicle was described as a Hispanic male adult wearing a dark sweatshirt.

The Ventura Police Department is asking for anyone with information regarding this attempted kidnapping, or any similar incidents to please contact Detective Casey Sutherland at 339-4467.
