Incident: Attempt Residential Burglary Arrest

Contact: Watch Commander, 805-339-4416

Location: 200 Block of Roosevelt Ave.

Date/Time Occurred: October 27, 2014, 3:11 p.m.

Officer(s) Involved: Ventura PD Patrol, Ventura PD Motors

Suspect(s): Brandon McCracken, 28 yrs, Vagrant

Report #: 14-13710

Narrative:

On the above date and time, the Ventura Police Department Command Center received a 911 call from a resident in the 200 Block of Roosevelt Ave., reporting a residential burglary that had just occurred.

The female victim was inside of her residence, when she heard noises coming from the backyard. The victim investigated the noise and observed the suspect, later identified as Brandon McCracken, attempting to open a rear sliding door. Due to the homeowner taking safety measures to prevent the door from being opened, McCracken was unable to open the door and enter into the residence. When he saw the victim inside the residence, McCracken fled from the backyard.

As he was fleeing, a second nearby resident observed McCracken running in the area and contacted the Ventura Police Department's Command Center to report the suspicious activity.

A motor officer patrolling in the area observed McCracken walking in the 7600 block of Loma Vista Rd. and detained him. McCracken was positively identified and arrested for attempted residential burglary. He was booked into the Ventura County Jail.

No one was injured as a result of this crime.
