Officers responded and as they arrived on scene they detained a possible suspect exiting the side yard of the residence carrying property. The occupants of the residence were accounted for and were not injured.

Officers checked the interior of the residence and no other suspects were located. The investigation determined that the suspect, identified as Pedro Gomez, was a former acquaintance of the victim who was not home at this time. Gomez was arrested and when searched he was found to be in possession of additional items stolen from the victims residence along with narcotic paraphernalia.

The victims property was released back the other residents. Gomez was transported to the Ventura County Main Jail and booked on the charges of 459 PC – Burglary and 11364.1 H&S – Possession of Narcotic Paraphernalia
