Incident: Prowling

Location: Balboa St. and Lakewood Ave.

Date/Time Occurred: 01/15/16 @ 7:34am

Officer(s) Involved: Ventura PD Patrol, California Highway Patrol

Suspect(s): Suspect #1: Domingo Cervantes, 36 years, Ventura Resident

Suspect #2: Angelica Cacho, 24 years, Ventura Resident

Report #: 16-00654

Narrative:

On the above date and time, the Ventura Police Department Command Center received a call from a resident in the area of the 8300 block of Balboa St., who reported seeing two subjects walking up the driveway of a neighbor's residence. The caller said they did not recognize the subjects as living at the residence.

Officers arrived on scene and observed the two subjects near the corner of Balboa St. and Lakewood Ave.

As the officers attempted to detain the subjects the male, later identified as Domingo Cervantes, immediately fled on foot towards Highway 126. Officers lost sight of Cervantes as he ran onto the highway, although several motorists then began calling saying he was running onto the center divider. With the assistance of the California Highway Patrol, vehicle traffic was briefly stopped while officers searched the highway. Cervantes was spotted and attempted to flee a second time, but was taken into custody without incident.

The female, later identified as Angelica Cacho, was immediately detained when stopped. She was later arrested and booked into the Ventura County Jail for prowling, providing false information to officers and misdemeanor warrants.

After being treated at VCMC for a hand injury he sustained while fleeing from officers, Cervantes was booked into the Ventura County Jail for prowling, resisting arrest and a felony warrant.
