

UPDATE -- Robbery with Arrest

 Print

Share

RSS

07/24/2014

Incident: UPDATE -- Robbery with Arrest

Contact: Watch Commander, 805-339-4416

Location: 4762 Telephone Rd (Burlington Coat Factory)

Date/Time Occurred: 7-13-14 @ about 1617 hours

Officer(s) Involved: Ventura PD Patrol

Suspect(s): HMA, 20's, thin build, shaved head, wearing a black and white Flannel, black pants

Report #: 14-08674

Narrative:

UPDATE: Ventura Police Detectives arrested Salvador Raymond Medrano (4/16/75) for robbery, after discovering he committed four additional robberies in the city of Oxnard. On 7/15/14 Medrano committed similar robberies at Subway and Food for Less in Oxnard. Then on 7/16/14 Medrano committed two more robberies at Home Depot and Vallarta Supermarket. Oxnard Police officers arrested Medrano when he attempted to commit a robbery at the Saint John's Regional Medical Center. Witnesses and video surveillance cameras tied Medrano to all the robberies.

Narrative from original release follows:

Narrative:

On the above date and time the suspect entered the Burlington Coat Factory and selected a soda from a convenience fridge near the front cash registers. The suspect pretended to pay for the soda but instead demanded money from the sales clerk at the register. The sales clerk put an undisclosed amount of money in a bag and the suspect fled the store. Ventura Patrol officer's checked the surrounding area but the suspect was not located.

The investigation into this incident is ongoing. Anyone with information related to this incident is urged to call the Ventura Police Department at 339-4309