Contact: Watch Commander, 805-339-4416

Location: 555 E. Santa Clara

Date/Time Occurred: 06/21/14 0257 hours

Officer(s) Involved: VPD Patrol, CHP

Suspect(s): Manuel Alamillo 39 years old, Santa Paula Resident

Report #: 14-07614

Narrative:

On the above date and time, the Ventura Police Command Center received a 911 call from the victim who advised they had just witnessed their vehicle being burglarized while parked in the parking structure. The victim was able to give a description of the suspect's vehicle and the direction of travel as the suspect fled from the scene of the crime.

Officers responding to the call learned the suspect had fled onto the freeway at a high rate of speed. Additional patrol officers monitored the freeway for the suspect vehicle and it was located driving at a high rate of speed. Officers were able to catch up to the vehicle and follow the vehicle, and eventually initiated an enforcement stop after the vehicle exited the 126 freeway at Kimball. Officers detained the suspect, who was positively identified and found him to be in possession of the victim's stolen property, as well as burglary tools.

The suspect was placed under arrest and booked at the Ventura County Jail for being in possession of stolen property, vehicle burglary, possession of burglary tools and reckless driving. The recovered property was identified and returned to the victim.

The Ventura Police Department would like to remind everyone not to leave valuables visible inside your parked vehicle.
