Subject: -EXT- Port Commission second interviews

As a tenant in Ventura Harbor since 1994 and a regular attendee of Port Commissioner "in person" interviews during these years, I am concerned with the appointment committee's decision being questioned by a candidate who deliberately failed to show up for the previously scheduled interview. I sincerely hope that this genuine gesture of fairness by the ARC does not change their unanimous decision to appoint Jackie Gardina and Robert Bravo. Their expertise in executive finance, real estate law and overall rules of law are so important at the Port District at this time. Countless lawsuits by tenants and potential tenants has cost the District a large amount of payouts. Money that could have been spent improving the Village infrastructure.
