Written Comments	I own three restored Victorian homes. They are Ventura Historical Landmarks at 107, 119 and 143 Figueroa Street. Across the street from my Victorians, on Santa Clara Street, are two bars, The "Blue Agave" and "The Tavern". Every Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights, at 2:00AM the next morning, when the bars close, two food catering trucks arrive and park next to my Victorians and the patrons of these two bars buy food and bring beer onto my parking lot; urinating, occasionally defecating , and leaving empty beer containers and trash on the porches of my Victorians, the parking lot and in the landscaping around the Victorians. When my caretaker, who resides in the Peirano House, asks these intoxicated trespassers to leave he often receives threats of physical harm, and has become afraid to approach them. I am requesting that the permits issued to the food catering trucks not allow them to operate after 8:00 PM. Or that the Liquor Licenses of these two bars be revoked.
